Here's what critics say about this year's offerings and artists:

"[SCCS] consistently programs fascinating music played by the best of local and national musicians."
— Rosemary Ponnekanti, Tacoma News Tribune

"The [Skyros] quartet plays with enthusiasm and precision."
— Audiophile Audition

"Violinist Michael Jinsoo Lim hit trills and cirrus-high notes with bewitching concision."
— Seattle Times

"Ms. Cohen's playing displays a superb finger technique that is always logical. Her lines have great coherence, proper musical feeling and a beautiful tonal balance. The music of this pianist is never distorted for the sake of extra showmanship or personal whim...everything is clear and flawless."
— Richard Faith, Pianists Foundation of America

Individuals 21 and under are free, so bring your whole families and share the joy of music together.

For additional savings, consider subscribing to the full season and save up to 20% on ticket prices. Would you like to have a full season but worried about missing a concert? Don't be. Contact our box office at 253.572.8863 and we will figure out a custom solution.

Your support makes each concert season possible, allowing us to compensate our featured artists, book diverse venues, and bring quality chamber music to local audiences. Your generous donations also invest in the future of chamber music by supporting our Young Chamber Players program. Please consider becoming a donor for Second City's 2019-2020 season!

Concert IV: "That's Entertainment!" is $50 for all attendees regardless of age.
